- GAELIC FOR "STORY TELLER"

VOLUME 48 ISSUE 5

FEBRUARY 2025

Congratulations to our 2025 Co-Members of the Year

Ann Turk

Ann Turk was born February 14, 1943, to Mary Irene and John E. O'Malley at St. Ann's Hospital. Mary Irene was of Irish decent, her mother, Anna Malloy from County Cavan. John E. O'Malley also was of Irish descent from County Mayo, making Ann 96% Irish. Her father was widowed before marrying Irene. Five of Ann's half-brothers and sisters are deceased, Colleen, Jack, William, Thomas, and Mary Pat. She is the oldest of seven, Jim, Bernie (deceased), Ed, (deceased), Ellen, Pat, and Frank. She grew up in Eastlake and attended St. Mary Magdalene and later moved to Chardon and attended Burton High School and Lakeland Community College. Her first job was at Isaly's in Chardon, during high school. Later, Ann worked in Human Resources as the Workmen's Compensation Specialist for Lincoln Electric. Ann served as councilwoman in her current city of Willowick from 2012-2019 and serves on the board of Hearts and Hammers of Willowick for the past fifteen years.

Ann married Bob on June 1, 1968 at St. Felicitas Church in Euclid and together they have two sons, Ryan and Bob, both firefighters. She is the proud grandmother of five granddaughters and one grandson. I am not sure if her grand kids would agree but word on the street from her siblings is that being the oldest Ann was the "worst" babysitter ever. Her siblings say she was strict.

Ann is also blessed with many nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and great, great nieces and nephews.

For the past 10 years her service to our Club includes the difficult job of being editor of the Schanachie, our monthly newsletter taking us into the age of technology, where cutting and pasting on paper was no longer an option. Being editor of the Schanachie is not any easy job, but Ann guides her committee through compiling information that makes our paper what it is today. The hardest part of this job being that of meeting deadlines which are never easy to do.

Ann, we thank you for all you have done for our Club and your community. You are truly an example for those of us to follow. Enjoy the ride and season ahead. Rest up, Ann, and get ready for a wonderful tribute to you.

Mike Stanton

Michael Patrick Stanton was born July 30, 1960 in Cleveland to Peg and Stan. He is the oldest of three with a sister, Rita, husband Dave and a brother Tim, and wife Maria. He was raised along with his siblings in Euclid where he attended St. Robert Elementary school and St. Joseph High School. Upon graduation he continued his education at the University of Dayton.

Mike married the love of his life Lori and along with her raised three sons, Michael, Greg, and Nick in Timberlake.

Mike worked for the United States Post Office as a mail carrier for 25 years and retired in 2021, but not before becoming famous for winning on America's Funniest Home Video for his encounter with a turkey. Mike was also the Mayor of Timberlake from 2018-2020

Mike enjoys watching his Dayton Flyers and he goes back once a year to catch a basketball game with his college roommates. He has been a Browns season ticket holder for years and continues to attend games to cheer them on even when they stink!

Mike has been spending countless hours over the past couple of years as the bar manager at the Club. He makes sure that everything is ordered and stocked. He does a lot of work behind the scenes to ensure that the bars are ready for events and rentals. We certainly appreciate all that Mike has done for our Club and are so pleased to honor him as our Member of the Year for 2025. Thank you, Mike, enjoy the ride!!!!

Movie Buzz

Bonnie Easton

Just for this month, I am changing the title to Movie Buzz since there are several movies and television shows being released that star Irish actors, take place in Ireland, or tell a story based on a book by an Irish author.

Small Things Like These stars Oscar winner Cillian Murphy (Oppenheimer) from a book written by Irish author Claire Keegan. In 1985, a devoted father who works as a coal merchant in a small town discovers disturbing secrets kept by the local convent and uncovers shocking truths of his own.

Murphy will also star in a new Netflix production of Peaky Blinders that is based on the beloved British TV series (2013-2022). It may be titled The Immortal Man and also stars Tim Roth and Barry Keoghan. The series centered around an English crime boss and his gang in 1919. No info has been released yet about this latest installment, but it is rumored to take place during World War II.

Four Letters of Love, based on the 2015 book by Niall Williams, stars Pierce Brosnan, Gabriel Byrne, and Helena Bonham Carter. Nicholas and Isabel were both born into families struck by tragedy, but fate has decided that they were meant for each other. A series of chance events and a miracle are needed to convince them to follow their hearts.

Say Nothing is a nine-part mini-series streaming on Hulu and Disney+. It is based on a bestselling book by Patrick Radden Keefe that was named one of the 20 Best Books of the 20th century by The New York Times. The topic is the bitter conflict in Northern Ireland and the violence there. Jean Conville, a single mother of 10, is abducted from her home in 1972 and never seen alive again. This event unfolds alongside the stories of various Irish Republican Army members, spanning four decades during the Troubles. It stars Lola Petticrew, Hazel Doupe, Anthony Boyle, Josh Finan, and Maxine Peake.

Popular Irish actress Saoirse Ronan is starring in Blitz. A nine-year old boy is evacuated to the countryside from London during World War II to escape the Nazi bombing raids, but young George is determined to return to his family and attempts a precarious journey home as his mother searches for him. Available on Apple TV and Hulu.

Another new Pierce Brosnan film is The Thursday Murder Club, which is based on the first of five volumes of a mystery series written by Richard Osman. It boasts a star-studded cast—Jonathan Pryce, David Tennant, Helen Mirren, and Ben Kingsley. Four residents of a peaceful retirement community in England enjoy solving cold murder cases, but they find themselves with a real murder to solve in their own community. Directed by Chris Columbus.

Black Bag will be released in March 2025. It stars Northern Irish actor Michael Fassbender supported by Tom Burke, Cate Blanchett, and, once again, Pierce Brosnan. When intelligence agent Kathryn Woodhouse is suspected of betraying her country, her husband George, also an agent, is forced to choose between loyalty to his wife and loyalty to his country. Release date is March 24, 2025. Directed by Steven Soderbergh and filmed in London.

Oldies but Goodies: The Famine Plot by Tim Pat Coogan, The Good People by Hannah Kent, The Woman on the Cliff by Janice Frost, and After the Rising and Before the Fall by Orma Ross.

The Mayo Society promotes cultural, charitable, scientific and/or literary exchanges between the People of the United States and the People of Ireland, with particular emphasis on County Mayo, including but not limited to research into the life and times of Irish immigration to America and the study of Irish and Irish-American history.

Each year, the Mayo Society of Greater Cleveland funds a scholarship program between John Carroll University and the National University of Ireland, Galway.
