* The Irish Club *

The Irish American Club East side was founded in 1978 to promote Irish heritage and culture as a family organization. Since its founding, the Irish Club has sponsored social, cultural, educational and athletic programs and events for our members.

Padraic Pearse maintains The Lonnie McCauley Memorial Library at the Irish Club. It also sponsors Gaelic language lessons, lectures, genealogy workshops, Cella and Irish Set dancing, and traditional Irish music. Padraic Pearse is the cultural arm of the Irish Club.

Members of the Irish Club are Irish all year long and enjoy 12 months of events and programs, which include a grand month long celebration of St. Patrick's Day, Sunday Brunches, Irish Fallfest, Dinners, Special Music and much more!
