Stories & Signatures: The Padraic Pearse Center Speaker Series

By Bree Gurry

The Padraic Pearse Center invites you to an evening with author Michael C. Mentel, featuring his eye-opening book, “The 1981 Irish Hunger Strike: An Account from Declassified British Documents”.

Join us Wednesday, September 25 in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., with the event beginning at 7 p.m. Mentel’s book provides a riveting exploration of the 1981 Irish Hunger Strike, drawing on newly declassified British documents to offer fresh perspectives on this critical moment in history.

This event is a must for anyone interested in Irish history, political struggles, and the stories that have shaped our world. Don’t miss this chance to hear from the author himself and dive deep into a pivotal chapter of Ireland’s past.

Book Buzz

Bonnie Easton

Bestselling author J. Courtney Sullivan has released her newest novel, The Cliffs. It includes history, family drama, and a ghost in a haunted house. When Jane Flanagan was a teenager in Maine, she loved an abandoned Victorian house where she used to hide from her abusive mother. Twenty years later, she works as an archivist at Harvard and returns home to find that the house has been restored by its new owner, Genevieve, who hires her to research the history of the house. It looks nothing like the place where she used to play. Genevieve suspects it is haunted.

Kala: A Novel is the debut novel by Colin Walsh. Fifteen years after reckless, motherless Kala Lannan disappeared from her home in a small town on the west coast of Ireland, her three friends reunite for the first time in many years. The story jumps back and forth in time between the police investigation into the discovery of a decomposed body recently found in the woods, to the events of that fateful summer long ago. The plot twists and turns as gangs, corrupt police, and buried secrets are introduced.

Sally Rooney, an Irish-born bestselling author (Conversations with Friends, Normal People) offers her newest publication, Intermezzo: A Novel, about two brothers grieving their recently deceased father. Peter Koubek is a 32-year-old lawyer caught between two very different women: Sylvia, his first love who was disabled in an accident six years earlier and Margaret, a young college student and sometime sex worker. Ivan plays competitive chess and feels socially inept. He becomes involved with an older woman who is in the middle of a divorce. Both young men are in complicated romances.

Flynn Barry has written a sequel to her 2021 thriller, Northern Spy about two sisters who were informants for MI5 when they were members of the IRA. Sisters Tessa and Marian Daly were given new identities in Dublin after their relocation from Northern Ireland. Each now has a child, but they know that IRA members have long memories. Tessa’s car is rear-ended, and she is confronted by an old friend from her past in the IRA who is seeking information about her MI5 connections. Suspense builds when Marian disappears while on a hike. Will the sisters stay safe as they walk a tightrope between former IRA contact Eoin Royce and their handsome MI5 handler Eamonn? Can they keep their children safe?

Some oldies but goodies for this month: Transatlantic by Colum McCann, The Whitest Flower by Brendan Graham, The Story of Lucy Gault by William Trevor, and The Secret Scripture and Old God’s Time by Sebastian Barry.

We would like to invite you to attend, as well as offer the opportunity to support, Irish Game Day at John Carroll University on October 12. There will be an Irish Cultural Tailgate, including music, food and dance, beginning at 10 am on South Belvoir Blvd, just south of the Don Shula Sports Center in University Heights. The inaugural Shamrock Game will kick-off at 1:30 pm. Blue Streak Football plays Capital University. The national anthems will be sung by Mary Agnes Kennedy and Mark Owens, a John Carroll grad and the first Irish Honorary Consul in Ohio, will perform the coin toss. Members of the Irish community will be recognized throughout the game, and at halftime there will be a Gaelic Athletic Association exhibition.

Your sponsorship of $50 will support the success and sustainability of this event. The digital game program will include your logo, and you will be acknowledged at the game. If you have marketing materials, table space will be available at the tailgate to promote your efforts.

Please complete the information below, and you will receive an email receipt. Any questions, check information and all logos can be submitted to: francis.mcgarry@bluestonecharities.org

Thank you and look forward to seeing you on the 12th.

DREAMS OF FREEDOM TRIBUTE CONCERT SATURDAY NOVEMBER 23, 2024

When Linda Fulton Burke joined the Irish American Club East Side in 1984, she found her passion, loving all things Irish. Linda gave of herself to the club for over 35 years, serving on the board in many positions and then finally as President. She was the instrument in creating the Pinochle League, Whiskey Tastings, and the MAGIC (Mature Adults Getting in Cahoots) group that lead to many adventures across the river and also to Ireland. Her greatest passion was the love of Irish music and bringing groups to the club for all to enjoy; she graciously served as entertainment chair for many years. She gave hope to local groups as they began their musical careers, such as the Mad Macs and No Strangers Here. She loved traveling to Ireland with family and friends; where over 20 years ago she met Richie O'Brien of Dreams of Freedom. They remained friends over the years and she was instrumental, along with Jack Kilroy, in helping Dreams of Freedom obtain visas to be able to bring their ballads and rebel music to the states for us all to enjoy. If you have heard Dreams of Freedom before I know you won't want to miss them and if you have never heard them then you are in for a great concert. Please save the date of Saturday, November 23, 2024, to salute Linda for all her hard work and dedication to the Irish American Club East Side. She is truly missed.
