Bonnie Easton

When We Were Silent by Irish journalist Fiona McPhillips is a suspenseful novel set in an exclusive private school in Dublin in 1986. Louise Manson enrolled in the school as a scholarship student after the suicide of her best friend, Tina. The gym teacher and swim coach, Maurice McQueen, had raped her and Louise wants to find the truth about her friend's death. McQueen molests Lou, but when she reports him, no one believes her, and she is ignored. Thirty years later, Lou is called to testify in a similar case at the school and must relive her previous trauma.

Mags Monroe is the police chief in the boring little town of Ballycarrick that was created by author Jean Grainger. The fifth entry in this series is Chancing Your Arm. Mags finds herself dealing with two high profile cases—the disappearance of a champion showjumper and a celebrity vacationing in a luxurious Irish castle. She enlists the help of handsome castle owner, Conor O'Shea. Are these seemingly unrelated cases connected is the dilemma.

Jody Hedlund offers two historical romance novels in the Shanahan Matchmaker series. The first is Calling on the Matchmaker. The series is set in 1840s St. Louis. Finola Shanahan, who is set on becoming a nun, has been able to spurn several potential matches that her parents have sent her way, but successful wagonmaker, Riley Rafferty, may be able to outsmart her. Finola spends her time helping immigrants in the slums since the death of her sister. When a cholera outbreak threatens the city, Finola and Riley unite to make a difference together.

In the second installment, Saved by the Matchmaker, Enya Shanahan has just finalized her annulment and discovers that she is pregnant. That creates a scandal in the town for her family. Her father turns to a matchmaker for help. Sullivan O'Brien is a steamboat captain working for his father and is helping slaves find freedom on the Underground Railroad. He seeks a marriage of convenience to appease his father and keep his job. Sullivan agrees to keep his distance from Enya until she is ready. Enya must learn to trust again and awaits her baby's birth while Sullivan faces danger on his voyages.

Popular late night TV host Stephen Colbert and his wife Evie McGee Colbert have written a cookbook, Does This Taste Funny: Recipes Our Family Loves. They lived in their home in Charleston, South Carolina, during the COVID lockdown with their three children all eating dinner together. With a picture accompanying almost every recipe, this Irish American couple has created a fun approach to Southern cooking derived from a cookbook Evie found in her mother-in-law's attic. They added their own flair to the project.

Oldies but goodies: Cashelmara by Susan Howatch, Brooklyn by Colm Toibin, Tis: A Memoir and Teacher Man by Frank McCourt, and Big Girl, Small Town by Michelle Gallen.

HE SAID. . .SHE SAID. . .

Dreams of Freedom

Irish Ballad Folk & Rebel Band

Dreams of Freedom is a ballad, folk, and rebel band who most recently had the honor of playing for the 2024 'Rose of Tralee' festivities and were the grand finale band in Tralee during Ireland's cultural day that was held all over Ireland on September 20, 2024.

Dreams of Freedom works hard promoting the culture of Ireland through songs and music so let's gather to once again raise a glass in honor of Linda Burke, past president and friend of all.

Purchase tickets online at eastsideirish.org or by contacting Barbara Comiskey at 216-346-1027 or Karen Hansen at 440-488-3730. Tickets will be available at the door the night of the concert on Saturday, November 23, 2024, as they perform a tribute concert in honor of Linda Burke.
